TAITTINGER TRUSTS BLACK RIVER CAVIAR IN ITS ORIGINAL CHAMPAGNE TASTING

June 17, 2016

This past June 7, Black River Caviar participated in an exclusive champagne tasting hosted by the renowned French brand Taittinger in Miami, USA.

This past June 7, Taittinger, the renowned brand of French origin, entertained clients and friends with an exclusive champagne and sea products tasting at the Japanese restaurant Zuma, in Miami, USA.

The event began with the tasting of Black River Caviar, in which guests were able to enjoy the pairing of our Siberian variety with a Brut La Française champagne. The tasting was presented by Nicolas Delion, from Champagne Taittinger, and Carissa Ashman, from Black River Caviar.

After this first instance, the evening continued with a six-course dinner prepared by chef Albert Díaz, in which different sea products, such as sushi and salmon and tuna tartars, were washed down with champagne varieties which enhance their flavors.

It was a great privilege for Black River Caviar to participate in this exclusive event as the invitation by Champagne Taittinger, one of the most prestigious brands in the sector, means a great recognition to the quality of our products and our commitment with high-end gastronomy.
