URUGUAYAN CAVIAR CONSOLIDATES IN CHILE

January 10, 2015

Last December was particularly important for Black River Caviar, as it's been two years since the introduction of its products to the Chilean market, known for its vast culture in sea products. Therefore, the fact that the brand was well received could be seen as a recognition of the company's work, as well as the quality of its products.

This success is due to joint work between Black River Caviar and the product's distributor in Chile, Gourmet Market, who will soon open their third store.
